Ms. Clarke, at the composer's request, will be performing Henry Mollicone's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra. Her exquisite tone and flawless technique are perfectly matched to this sumptuous concerto.

In the past decade, Clarke has performed with 70 orchestras such as the Buffalo Philharmonic, the Colorado Symphony Orchestra, the London Sinfonia, and the Royal Scottish Orchestra. Her repertoire includes challenging works by Bruch, Glazunov, Dvorak, Prokofiev and Beethoven. Clarke's first album, "Romantic Violin Showpieces," featured works by Saint-Saens, Tchaikovsky, Chausson, and Kreisler. A native of Great Britain, Clarke made her debut performance at the age of 16, at London's South Bank Centre, and her Carnegie Hall debut in 2007. Pip Clarke appears by arrangement with CHL Artist, Inc. of Los Angeles, CA.
