

Laura Barraán is a young soprano and graduate of West Valley College with an AA in Music. She recently received her BA with a double major in Vocal Performance and Music Education at San Jose State University. Laura teaches beginning piano and voice and she currently teaches at Willow Glen Music School. Her interest in music is driven by her love of performing. She has sung in various choirs, including West Valley Chamber Singers with Lou de la Rosa and SJSU Choraliers with Dr. Jeffrey Benson, for the past five years. She also enjoys taking part in opera theater classes and local musical theater productions.

John Vidovic is a composer, arranger, guitarist and private instructor for guitar, piano, theory and composition. He received a B.A. from UCLA and 2 M.M. degrees from the S.F. Conservatory of Music in Composition (2017) with David Garner and Guitar Performance (2019) with David Tanenbaum. Mr. Vidovic spent the summer of 2014 & 2015 studying in Paris at La Schola Cantorum with David Conte and Michel Merlet.

His compositions are greatly influenced by folk music of North and South America, choral music traditions of Russia and Eastern Europe, as well as the harmonic and tone sensitivity of the French masters he picked up while in Paris.

Although Mr. Vidovic's primarily performs "classical" guitar, he is well versed in teaching vastly different styles and always accommodate the student's taste and needs very carefully.

His passion for teaching, composing and performing continue to inspire new musical opportunities everyday.
