Kameron Duncan

Kameron Duncan is a pianist from the San Francisco Bay Area studying with Sandra Wright Shen. He has played in masterclasses led by Ruth Slynczenska, Hilary Hahn, and Antonio Pompa-Baldi, and has learned from pedagogues like John Perry and Roberto Prosseda. Kameron is an enthusiastic collaborator, having worked in-depth in a horn-oboe-piano trio and as Piano Faculty Assistant for the Northern California Flute Camp. In 2025, he attended an Avaloch Farm Music Institute Residency. He has studied and performed at the Brevard Music Center, the Virtuoso & Belcanto Festival, the Vienna International Pianists Academy, and Curtis Summerfest. Kameron was a 2019 YoungArts winner. He earned a B.S. in Physics and Music from Yale, studying piano with Wei-Yi Yang, and received the Joseph Lentilhon Selden Memorial Award for undergraduate excellence in music. His interest in keyboard instruments extends to the carillon, which he played as a member of the Yale University Guild of Carillonneurs.
